- Responsorial Psalm 23: 2-3

In today's Gospel we see Jesus the Good Shepherd, caring for His sheep, both the Apostles and the crowds. The Apostles had just returned from a mission of evangelization and were exhausted, unable to find rest even at home, so popular had the Lord become. So they set off for a retreat, yet the Lord's heart was moved with pity for the crowds (these shepherdless sheep) who followed them and so He took the time to be with and teach them as well.

- Salmo Responsorial 23: 2-3

'El buen pastor cuida de sus ovejas,' Jesús nos dice en el evangelio de hoy. Los apóstoles regresan de evangelizar y están agotados, sin poder encontrar descanso ni en casa, pues el Señor se había hecho muy popular. Por esta razón se fueron a un retiro, pero el corazón del Señor se conmovió con piedad por las multitudes (ovejas sin pastor) quienes le siguieron, así que tomó el tiempo de estar con ellos y enseñarles también.

Rincón del Pastor

Como ya se habrán dado cuenta de los cambios que estan pasando tanto en la Parroquia como en la Escuela; cambios como reemplazos, adiciones, mejoras, organizaciones, realineamientos, entrenamientos para las celebraciones liturgicas, en personal administrativo, ministros y voluntarios; continuemos construyendo y apoyando a nuestra parroquia y a todos y cada uno con nuestra participacion active, consciente y plena.

La vida es un constante cambio! Solamente necesitamos de estar abiertos a la inspiracion y guia del Espiritu Santo para la mayor gloria de Dios!
